Sites of Confinement II: Problematising Prisons
30th October 2014, 2-6pm, Room G17
John Foster Building, Liverpool John Moores University

This workshop is the second in the ‘Sites of Confinement’ series held by the Centre for the Study of Crime, Criminalisation and Social Exclusion in partnership with the European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control. The afternoon aims to stimulate discussion around areas of contention in prisons and other places of confinement, including deaths in custody and psychiatric care, the role of prison guards and ‘trusted’ prisoners, and the harms of prison itself.

Schedule:
2pm: Welcome: Victoria Canning, co-ordinator of the Prisons, Punishment and Detention Working Group

2.15pm-3.45pm
John Moore: Maconochie at Birmingham Prison, 1849-1851: Reformative Rhetoric and Corporal Practice
Belinda Carpenter: Investigating Death amongst Vulnerable and Marginalised Populations
Carly Speed: Degradation and Death: Psychiatric Detention in England and Wales

Break

4pm-5pm
Alessandro Maculan: A View from the Inside: Researching Italian Prison Officers
Sacha Darke: Informal Prison Dynamics in Latin America

5pm Onwards: Book Launch:
‘Sites of Confinement: Prisons, Punishment and Detention’, edited by Victoria Canning