MONDAY 9-10:30am
1. CONTRADICTIONS OF GLOBALISATION
   Chair: Janet Jamieson
   Conor O'Reilly, University of Porto, Portugal
   ‘Beyond Containment’: The Security Parallels of Global Mobility & the Neo-Liberal (Re)turn
   Agata Kaczmarek, University of Stirling, UK
   An Examination of the Effects of Contradictions in Globalization on Europe’s Migration Laws
   Kerry Moore, University of Cardiff, UK
   ‘Asylum Shopping’ and the Politics of Postcolonial Neo-Liberalism

2. DEMONISING PARENTS
   Chair: Vincenzo Ruggiero
   Fabienne Portier-Le Coq, University Paris 13, France
   The Demonisation and Social Control of Teenage Mothers in 21st Century Britain
   Tony Ward, University of Hull, UK
   The Boundaries of Acceptable Parenting: The ‘Tutelary Complex’ and the Courts
   Brenda Geiger, Western Galilee Academic College & Zefat Academic College, Israel
   Naming Oneself Criminal: Gender differences in offenders' identity negotiation

3. LABELLING DEVIANCE I
   Chair: Christina Ericson
   Monika Platek, Warsaw University, Poland
   New Dolce Vita: Sex, Drugs and some extra Hooligans
   Carla Nagels, The Free University of Brussels, Belgium
   When Big Business Commits Social Fraud

4. REPRESENTATIONS OF DEVIANCE IN THE ARTS
   Chair: Paul Norris
   Nikos Rinis, University of the Aegean, Greece
   Cultural Criminology and Social Control: A “noir” approach.
   Anne Lise Marin Lamellet, University Grenoble 3, France
   Filming the Margins

MONDAY 11-12:30pm
5. TECHNOLOGY AND CONTROL
   Chair: Monika Platek
   Btihaj Ajana, King’s College, London, UK
   Biometric citizenship and the neoliberalisation of borders
   Christos Kouroutzas, University of the Aegean, Greece
   Genotyping Data Banks (Biobanks) as a Means of ‘Genetic Social Control’ (Biocontrol) in Modern Social Systems: Pilot qualitative research in Greece

6. LABELLING DEVIANCE II
   Chair: David Scott
   Maria Kaspersson, University of Greenwich, UK
   What a Difference the Context Makes - Dangerous Dogs, Dangerous Situations or Dangerous Owners?
Deborah De Felice, University of Catania, Italy
Normality and Deviance in the debate Nature VS Nurture

Ragnhild Sollund, Norway
The illegal animal trade

7. CARCERAL BOUNDARIES: BEYOND EUROPE
Chair: Demetra Sorvatzioti
Sacha Darke, University of Westminster, UK and Maria Lucia Karam, Institute of Criminology, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
The Injustices of Pre-Trial Detention: The Case of Brazil

Andrew Jefferson, Rehabilitation and Research Centre for Torture Victims, Copenhagen, Denmark
Confining institutions and practices in Sierra Leone

Stratos Georgoulas, University of the Aegean, Greece
Crime and Society in Modern Syria and Jordan

8. REGULATING SEX CRIME
Chair: Brenda Geiger
Avigail Moor, Tel Hai College, Israel
When does sexual coercion become rape? Distinguishing deviant from normal sexual conduct

Arielle Fischer, Technicon, Haifa, Israel
The Empowerment and Resilient Self-efficacy Perception of Mizrahi Street Prostitutes

MONDAY 16:45-18:15

9. CRIMINALISING MIGRANTS I
Chair: Stratos Georgoulas
Demetra Sorvatzioti, European University, Cyprus
Immigrants and the Criminal Justice System in Modern Society: Violation or Protection of their Human Rights?

Raymond Michalowski, Northern Arizona University, USA
“Attrition Through Enforcement”: Rebordering of Social Space in Arizona’s War on the Immigrant ‘Other’

Tatjana Vukelić, Germany
The Politics of Immigration: The Persecution and Exclusion of Roma and Traveller People

10. YOUTH AND SOCIAL CONTROL
Chair: Sacha Darke
Juul Gooren, Hague University of Applied Sciences, The Netherlands
The implications of criminal law for sexual contact with youngsters

Simone Antje Gerwert, Bielefeld University, Germany
The Influence of Activating Labour Market Policy on the Capabilities of Young Adults: Sanctions in the context of compulsion

Sarah van Praet, Free University of Brussels, Belgium
Objectives and Uses of Restrictions on Dancing with Regard to Young People in Belgium
11. URBAN BOUNDARIES
Karen Evans, University of Liverpool, UK
Shifting perceptions of crime, safety and community in contemporary politics and policy
Donna Bendelow, Liverpool John Moores University, UK
Raising Questions Concerning Power, Governance and Accountability – Reflections on Urban Regeneration in Preston

12. LABELLING THE TERRORIST THREAT
Chair: Joanna Gilmore
Tina Patel, University of Salford, UK
Ethnic profiling, suspect bodies and the ‘war on terror’: The impact of surveillance
Catherine Vigier, University of Rouen, France
Multiculturalism in Britain and the war on terror

***************

TUESDAY 9.00-10.30
13. LETTING THE INCARCERATED SPEAK
Chair: James Deane
Francesca Vianello, University of Padua, Italy
Convict Perspectives on ‘Prison Emergency’
Vincenzo Scalia, University of Palermo, Italy
Beyond the Denial: The Beatings of Prisoners and the Mobilization of Society

14. POLICING PROTEST
Chair: Caroline De Geest
Joanna Gilmore, University of Manchester, UK
Repression and resistance in the age of austerity: Protest policing and normalisation of ‘exceptional’ measures in the United Kingdom.
Nicholas Currie, University of Central Lancashire, UK
‘The game has changed’ (Sir Paul Stevenson – Metropolitan Police Commissioner) – Policing Protest and Insurgent Democracy

15. POLICING THE BOUNDARIES
Chair: Monish Bhatia
James Deane, University of Central Lancashire, UK
Police Pursuits: law, order, and the end of a ‘golden age’?
Julien Niklaus, Institut de Hautes Études en Administration Publique, Lausanne, Switzerland
The Influence of the Philosophy of Police Tactics on Breaking down Social Barriers
Waqas Tufail, University of Salford, UK
Investigating Neighbourhood Partnership Policing
Ida Nafstad, Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law, University of Oslo
Changing Police Control: Differentiation of social control of Norwegian and foreign citizens in the open drug scene in Oslo
16. APPROACHES TO YOUNG OFFENDING
Michela Patti, Criminal Lawyer, Salerno, Italy
"Adolescents EXTREME": Migrant minors who commit heinous crimes. Projects for rehabilitation and social inclusion

Jacques Moriau, The Free University of Brussels, Belgium
Tous délinquants ? De l’usage de l’aveu dans une société de contrôle
Are they all criminals? The use of self-confession in a society of control

Tuuli Kurki & Kristiina Brunila, University of Helsinki, Finland
The Wheel of (Mis)fortune: Youth Training and Guidance as Precarious and Projectised Educational Politics

TUESDAY 10.45-12.15

17. DEMONISING ASYLUM-SEEKERS
Monish Bhatia, University of Huddersfield, UK
Criminal Justice System and Asylum Seeker: Narrating the Consequences of ‘Spoiled Identity’

Vicky Canning, Liverpool John Moores University, UK
Counting the Unaccountable: Entitlement to Sanctuary and Asylum for Women Raped in Conflict

18. CRIMINALISING DEPRIVED YOUTH
Marie Kortam, Université Paris Diderot, France
Deprived Urban Areas in France: Violence of power and the power of violence

Simon Hallsworth, London Metropolitan University, UK
We have lessons to teach you

19. DRUGS AND MARGINALISATION
Meropi Tzanetakis, University of Vienna, Austria
Does a neoliberal reconstruction of the European Union have influences on upper-level drug dealing? A case study

Maria Lucia Karam, Institute of Criminology, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil
Legalising Drugs: A stepping stone to restraining the power of punishment

Samantha Weston, University of Manchester, UK
Sick or deviant?: The stigmatisation of drug users and implications on drug treatment progression and recovery

20. CONSTRUCTING BOUNDARIES
Dolly Daou, University of South Australia, Australia
Possibilities within boundaries

André Giamberardino, University of Paraná, Brazil
Internal Borders and Fear of Crime in Brazil: A war against the poor
TUESDAY 13.45-15.15

21. STATE POWER AND PUNISHMENT
Chair: Andrea Beckmann
Bernd Dollinger, University of Siegen, Germany
Rhetorical Politics of the “Punitive Turn”: From “late modernity” and “neo-liberalism” to the political discourse of “getting tough on crime”

Magdalena Kmak, University of Helsinki, Finland
State Monopoly of Violence Without the State? Privatisation of migration detention institutions as a measure of technology of security

22. ABOLITIONIST CRITIQUES OF PUNISHMENT
Chair: Rob White
David Scott, University of Central Lancashire, UK
Penal Abolitionism and Utopian Thought
John Moore, UWE Bristol, UK
What about the murders and rapists? Difficult questions for Abolitionism

23. THE GENDERED USE OF THE CRIMINAL LAW
Chair: Simon Hallsworth
Jacqueline Kerr, University of Ulster, UK
Women Who Offend and Official Reform Discourse in Northern Ireland: In Control or Under Control?
Roy Coleman (University of Liverpool) and Victoria Canning (Liverpool John Moores University), UK
‘Look out for yourself’: Surveillance, regulation and sexual violence against women

Janet Jamieson, Liverpool John Moores University, UK
Gender, Personal Safety and Dispersal

24. RETHINKING CRITICAL CRIMINOLOGY
Chair: Ron Honig
"Recent European and North African Struggles in the Context of the New Global Crisis”
Omid Firouzi, University of Urbino, Italy
The Social Construction of the Enemy and the Global Economic Crisis: Ethnographical research in Zingonia (Bergamo)
Giuseppe Mosconi, University of Padua, Italy
Global Crisis, Environmental Emergencies, New North African and European Movements: Rethinking Critical Criminology

TUESDAY 15:30-17:00

25. DEMONISING YOUTH
Chair: Roy Coleman
Marília De Nardin Budó, Federal University of Paraná, Brazil
From Victims to Demons: The treatment of childhood and adolescence in the interaction between the media and the Brazilian Penal System

Konstantinos (Costa) Delimitsos, Université Nancy 2, France
(Re)Demonising popular youth in France. The case of the "new security experts"
26. CRIMINALISATION AND THE EU
Vico Valentini, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, Italy
European Criminal Justice and Continental Criminal Law: A critical overview

Bill Munro, University of Sterling, UK
Notes Towards an Outline for a Critique of the European ‘State’

27. STATE CRIME
Ronald C. Kramer, Western Michigan University, U.S.A.
Global Warming and Climate Change as State-Corporate Crime

Rob White, University of Tasmania, Australia
Environmental Activism and Resistance to State-Corporate Crime

Athanasios Chouliaras, Democritus University of Thrace, Greece
Dealing with State-Sponsored International Crimes: Towards an integrated model of responsibility

28. BEYOND CRIMINOLOGY
Alejandro Forero, University of Barcelona, Spain
Beyond criminology? An anarchist approach to criminology

Andrea Beckmann, University of Lincoln, UK
Resisting the Violence of the Market: 'Normalisation', the importance of critical pedagogy and intellectual activism for critical criminology

WEDNESDAY 9-10:30am
29. CRIMINALISING MIGRANTS II
Simone Santorso, Urbino University, Italy
Migration and Detention: The change in Italian legislation

Geraldine George, Panthéon-Assas University, France
Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights and the Right to Family Reunion: To be welcome – or not – in France and Great Britain

Ekaterina Tishchenko and Anna Karasova, Southern Federal University, Russia
Migration Process as a Victimisation Factor for Socio-ethnic Communities in Russia

30. ETHNICITY AND THE DEVIANT OTHER
Fabio Bracci, Urbino University, Italy
The ‘Chinese deviant’: building the perfect enemy in a local arena

Carlos Parra, Southern Adventist University, USA
Latinos by Nationality and Illegal by Ethnicity: Otherness and the Condition of Fear in the U.S.

Ron Hoenig, University of South Australia, Australia
Monsters on the Borderlands: An analysis of Australian print media depictions of Woomera and its denizens
31. FORTRESS EUROPE

Chenchen Zhang, University of Rome, Italy

Rearticulating Territoriality, Identity and Rights: The theoretical implications of migration in the context of Europeanisation

Karin Creutz-Kämppi, University of Helsinki, Finland

Constructing ‘The Other’: Europeanisation and Social Boundaries in Media Discourses on Islam

Cristina Fernández Bessa, University of Barcelona-Spain) and Iker Barbero González, Open University, UK

Governing mobility in the European Union: Identity controls as technologies of alterity

EXTRA PAPER (Participant unable to attend – paper to be circulated at conference)

Sekholal Kom, North Eastern Hill University, India

Negotiating Ethnic Diversity and Securing Autonomy for Minorities in Northeast India